This year's National Leadership Conference was hosted in Anaheim, California. At NLC, students compete against the best of the best from across the country. Kansas FBLA had an incredibly exciting 2025 NLC, with some highlights including the Kansas Meeting, the FBLA Night at the Los Angeles Angels game, and the awards ceremony where 17 Kansas members were recognized on the national stage. We were also proud to have former Kansas FBLA president Mason Lytle represent the state as the National Mountain Plains Region Vice President, and the former Kansas FBLA Parliamentarian Sarah Rose represent the state on the National Parliamentarian Council this past year.

Andover High School

Andover High School has had an accomplished start to the new membership year. At the National Leadership Conference last summer, Andover celebrated two students who made it to the national stage. They are proud to recognize Peyton Davies, who placed 9th in Public Speaking, and Nic Sporleder, who placed 6th in Financial Math. After attending the Summer Leadership Seminar and hosting concessions to benefit their school, Andover is excited to continue its successes by competing in Champion Chapter for the first time this year!

Topeka West High School

The recently reactivated chapter, Topeka West High School, is making powerful strides to accomplish great things in this new membership year. After five years without members, Topeka West proudly had two student leaders step up last year as re-founding members. They are optimistic about the future of their chapter as they had 37 members sign up at their beginning-of-the-year Club Carnival, and they have hosted meetings with an average size of 12-15 members

Washington County High School

Washington County High School is kicking off the new year with a jam-packed schedule full of fun, teamwork, and new faces. So far, they have hosted an Officer Retreat with goal-setting and teambuilding activities, and they held a Recruitment Party to encourage new membership. They are also looking forward to organizing an Ice Cream Social to celebrate paid members. Washington County has had an amazing start to the year, and they are excited to have new and returning members as part of their journey.

Alumni Spotlight

Grace Piche

Grace Piche is a freshman at Northwest Missouri State University pursuing Mass Media. Her favorite memory of FBLA is 2024 NLC in Orlando, Florida. Grace believes that Kansas FBLA has been pivotal for her success because she has mastered leadership, communication, and teamwork skills through competitions and chapter involvement. Through Kansas FBLA, Grace has developed confidence, real-world experience, and a clear direction for her future in business. Her advice for current members is “Don’t be afraid to try everything when it comes to FBLA because you never know where this amazing organization can take you!”

Jonah Sandford is graduating Pittsburg State University with a BBA in business economics and will be attending Kansas State for his MA in economics this coming spring. Kansas FBLA helped Jonah learn about business operations and explore all facets of the business environment through the wide variety of competitive events. Jonah has continued his journey in FBLA at the collegiate level as the Kansas FBLA Collegiate president. His advice for new members is “Get out of your comfort zone at conferences and events. Networking with other FBLA members and learning about their experiences is one of the most valuable things available.”

Jonah Sandford

Sarah Rose

Sarah Rose is attending Washington University, St. Louis to study cognitive neuroscience, with a specialization in language and cultural cognition. Sarah attributed her success in both high school and the college application process to the leadership positions, skills, and accolades she gained through this organization. Sarah is grateful for the valuable skills and lifelong friends she has made throughout her FBLA journey. Her advice for new members is “Be comfortable with being uncomfortable. Comfort limits success. Step out of what you know is safe, and you will find so many opportunities for growth and leadership!”
